CHUCK MUTH

Yes, it is that Chuck Muth. If you aren't on his e-mail list, I know you will want to be after you hear him speak. He is a hard hitting, in-the-know conservative with a capital C. In addition to his e-mail blast of "Muth's Truths", he is the publisher of "Nevada News & Views", Nevada's leading conservative news blog. A political communications consultant and a professional campaign trainer, this former National Chairman of the Republican Liberty Caucus and former Nevada Republican Party Executive Director, has conservative roots that are beyond compare. In addition, in his spare time he is a freelance columnist, an author and a regular commentator on political TV and radio shows. A must see!!!

NFRW NATIONAL CONVENTION

The National Federation of Republican Women is holding its convention in Kansas City, MO this year on September 28th through October 2nd. The President of every club is a delegate to this convention. In addition, depending on the size of their membership, each state federation can send additional delegates and alternates. Our state federation is electing its delegates and alternate delegates at the Spring Board Meeting in Carson City on May 21st. Every member of every club is eligible to be a delegate. If you would like to throw your hat in the ring to be selected as a delegate your need to let Mike Hules know by May 14th. You can send her a brief resume prior to the board meeting or if you are attending the board meeting, you can bring it with you. Your resume should be no more than one page and tell about your work for the federation, your club and the Republican party. There will be financial assistance for each delegate and alternate ($500 for delegates and $350 for alternates). You don't have to attend the board meeting in order to run for this position. Send your resume to Mike Hules, mahules@gmail.com, or 6348 Firebee Ct., Sparks, NV 89436 or call her 775-354-1135.

NvFRW SPRING BOARD MEETING

The State Federation's Spring Board Meeting is in May. We are meeting in Carson City, Nevada on May 21st. Several of your club members are attending, and we would love to have you come along. Most of us are going up on the 19th so we can be there on the 20th to tour the capital, meet the legislatures, go to the museum at the US Mint and just have a good time together. It's not too late to register. For more information contact Virginia Finnegan, 702-270-0425 or e-mail virginiafaye@cox.net. Hope to see you there.

"I'm 63 and I'm Tired" (excerpts only)

by Robert A. Hall

I'm 63. Except for one semester in college when jobs were scarce and a six-month period when I was between jobs, but job-hunting every day, I've worked hard since I was 18. Despite some health challenges, I still put in 50-hour weeks, and haven't called in sick in seven or eight years. I make a good salary, but I didn't inherit my job or my income, and I worked to get where I am. Given the economy, there's no retirement in sight, and I'm tired. Very tired.

I'm tired of being told that I have to "spread the wealth" to people who don't have my work ethic. I'm tired of being told the government will take the money I earned, by force if necessary, and give it to people too lazy to earn it.

I'm tired of being told how bad America is by left-wing millionaires like Michael Moore, George Soros and Hollywood Entertainers who live in luxury because of the opportunities America offers. In thirty years, if they get their way, the United States will have the economy of Zimbabwe, the freedom of the press of China, the crime and violence of Mexico, the tolerance for Christian people of Iran, and the freedom of speech of Venezuela

A CONVERSATION WITH THE CONGRESSMAN

Our guest speaker in April was Congressman Joe Heck. He was kind enough to say that "we are his home club" and to thank our members for their help during the campaign. He explained the debates that have been going on in Congress about Continuing Resolutions, the Budget for the coming year and the Debt Limit. He noted that he is reading every bill before he votes and he assured us that the Republicans in Congress are united and determined to make significant cuts in federal spending but must be willing to negotiate with the Democrats in order to get any legislation through the Senate.

He had particular praise for Speaker John Boehner. He said that he had gotten to know him during a just completed six day trip to Afghanistan, Pakistan and Iraq. He said that Boehner is not only a good man, but he is a very effective leader. Boehner does not just concentrate on what is happening in the House, but looks ahead to what is needed to help the Republicans gain a majority in the Senate. Speaker Boehner included in the latest Continuing Resolution guarantees that there would be up or down votes in the Senate on cutting off funding for Planned Parenthood and the repeal of Obamacare. Without these assurances, Harry Reid would never have allowed these items to come up for a vote. Although they will undoubtedly not pass in the Senate, all 23 of the Democrat Senators up for election in 2012 will be on the records with their votes.

If you missed the luncheon or are interested in Congressman Heck's comments or positions on issues, he has a great web site, CLICK HERE, and he is also available on twitter, facebook. There are great pictures on the web site. We look forward to having Congressman Heck visit with SHRW again in the near future.

(continued from page 4) I'm tired of being told that Islam is a "Religion of Peace," when every day I can read dozens of stories of Muslim men killing their sisters, wives and daughters for their family "honour"; of Muslims rioting over some slight offense; of Muslims murdering Christian and Jews because they aren't "believers"; of Muslims burning schools for girls; of Muslims stoning teenage rape victims to death for "adultery"; of Muslims mutilating the genitals of little girls; all in the name of Allah, because the Qur'an and Shari'a law tells them to.

I think it's very cool that we have a black president and that a black child is doing her homework at the desk where Lincoln wrote the Emancipation Proclamation. I just wish the black president was Condi Rice, or someone who believes more in freedom and the individual and less arrogantly of an all-knowing government. Like Bill Cosby! He's fabulous and everything he says makes sense! Why doesn't someone convince HIM to run!

I'm tired of being told I must lower my living standard to fight global warming, which no one is allowed to debate. My wife and I live in a two-bedroom apartment and carpool together five miles to our jobs. We also own a three-bedroom condo where our daughter and granddaughter live. Our carbon footprint is about 5% of Al Gore's, and if you're greener than Gore, you're green enough.

I'm tired of illegal aliens being called "undocumented workers," especially the ones who aren't working, but are living on welfare or crime. What's next? Calling drug dealers, "Undocumented Pharmacists"? And, no, I'm not against Hispanics. Most of them are Catholic, and it's been a few hundred years since Catholics wanted to kill me for my religion. I'm willing to fast track for citizenship any Hispanic person, who can speak English, doesn't have a criminal record and who is self-supporting without family on welfare, or who serves honourably for three years in our military.... Those are the citizens we need.

I'm tired of people telling me we need bipartisanship. I live in Illinois, where the "Illinois Combine" of Democrats has worked to loot the public for years. Not to mention the tax cheats in Obama's cabinet.

Speaking of poor, I'm tired of hearing people with air-conditioned homes, color TVs and two cars called poor. The majority of Americans didn't have that in 1970, but we didn't know we were "poor." The poverty pimps have to keep changing the definition of poor to keep the dollars flowing.

I'm real tired of people who don't take responsibility for their lives and actions. I'm tired of hearing them blame the government, or discrimination or big-whatever for their problems.

Yes, I'm tired. But I'm also glad to be 63. Because, mostly, I'm not going to have to see the world these people are making. I'm just sorry for my granddaughter.

Robert A. Hall is a Marine Vietnam veteran who served five terms in the Massachusetts State Senate.
